

Preparing for Generation Z: Are You Ready for Supervision?

Key characteristics:

Children of Generation X
Short attention span (8 seconds)
Individuals who like authenticity
Grew up on technology (unlike Millennials)
Less sense of entitlement
Will do work but want to know outcome
Want real life experiences
Innovative

Teaching Generation Z:

Creative Pedagogy:

- Change lecture often and add variety
- Use technology (e.g. YouTube, Vine, Skits, Flipped classroom)
- Relate lectures to real life scenarios

ASHA Supervision Competencies

https://www.asha.org/PRPSpecificTopic.aspx?folderid=8589942113§ion=Key_Issues

Supervising Generation Z:

Give feedback in multiple ways
Connect the practice to the big picture
Practice makes perfect (or at least a little more perfect)
Involve them on the “why” of what they are doing

